

“The God of the 2nd Chance”
Jeremiah 18:1-6

Jeremiah 18 describes the work of a _____ who is trying to make something useful out of a lump of _____. As we observe this potter working on the clay, we discover how God _____ in our lives.

1. How the Clay Was _____. 18:2-3

- A. The Potter Represents _____. 18:6
- B. The Clay Represents _____. 18:6
- C. The Wheel Represents the Daily _____ of Life. 18:3

Failure is not always the result of _____ but sometimes we feel like a failure because we have sinned and run away from God’s _____.

2. How the Clay was _____. 18:4.

- A. The Clay May Have Had a Hidden _____.
- B. The Clay May Have Become Too _____.

3. How the Clay was _____. 18:4

The potter took the _____ piece of clay, started all over again, and made a brand new _____. He gave it a _____ chance. Someone said, “God can mend a broken life, but only if you give Him all the _____.”

Franklin Graham is an example of a man who lived in _____ against God’s will. Eventually Franklin put his life on the potter’s _____ and God was able to make something _____ out of it.

“The God of the 2nd Chance”
Jeremiah 18:1-6

Jeremiah 18 describes the work of a _____ who is trying to make something useful out of a lump of _____. As we observe this potter working on the clay, we discover how God _____ in our lives.

1. How the Clay Was _____. 18:2-3

- A. The Potter Represents _____. 18:6
- B. The Clay Represents _____. 18:6
- C. The Wheel Represents the Daily _____ of Life. 18:3

Failure is not always the result of _____ but sometimes we feel like a failure because we have sinned and run away from God’s _____.

2. How the Clay was _____. 18:4.

- A. The Clay May Have Had a Hidden _____.
- B. The Clay May Have Become Too _____.

3. How the Clay was _____. 18:4

The potter took the _____ piece of clay, started all over again, and made a brand new _____. He gave it a _____ chance. Someone said, “God can mend a broken life, but only if you give Him all the _____.”

Franklin Graham is an example of a man who lived in _____ against God’s will. Eventually Franklin put his life on the potter’s _____ and God was able to make something _____ out of it.

Transformed Clay Wheel God Beautiful Potter
Will Second Deformed Pot Rebellion Flaw Us
Works Pieces Hard Events Formed Same Sin

Transformed Clay Wheel God Beautiful Potter
Will Second Deformed Pot Rebellion Flaw Us
Works Pieces Hard Events Formed Same Sin